To MOTHER
on Mother's Day

No other heart so understanding
No other smile so very dear
No other hands so quick and willing
Throughout each day and passing year
No other ways so kind and cheerful
So thoughtful and unselfish, too
No other love like Mother's love
No Mother wonderful as you!

I have been indeed blessed by having you for a mother.
May God bless you and keep you forever more. Love,
James

1 This book is the property of the United States Government. It is unlawful to sell or give it to any other person or to use it or permit anyone else to use it, except to obtain rationed goods for the person to whom it was issued.

2 This book must be returned to the War Price and Rationing Board which issued it, if the person to whom it was issued is inducted into the armed services of the United States, or leaves the country for more than 30 days, or dies. The address of the Board appears above.

3 A person who finds a lost War Ration Book must return it to the War Price and Rationing Board which issued it.

4 PERSONS WHO VIOLATE RATIONING REGULATIONS ARE SUBJECT TO $10,000 FINE OR IMPRISONMENT, OR BOTH.

OPA Form No. R-121 16—30853-1

INSTRUCTIONS

1 This book is valuable. Do not lose it.

2 Each stamp authorizes you to purchase rationed goods in the quantities and at the times designated by the Office of Price Administration. Without the stamps you will be unable to purchase those goods.

3 Detailed instructions concerning the use of the book and the stamps will be issued from time to time. Watch for those instructions so that you will know how to use your book and stamps.

4 Do not tear out stamps except at the time of purchase and in the presence of the storekeeper, his employee, or a person authorized by him to make delivery.

5 Do not throw this book away when all of the stamps have been used, or when the time for their use has expired. You may be required to present this book when you apply for subsequent books.

Rationing is a vital part of your country's war effort. This book is your Government's guarantee of your fair share of goods made scarce by war, to which the stamps contained herein will be assigned as the need arises.

Any attempt to violate the rules is an effort to deny someone his share and will create hardship and discontent.

Such action, like treason, helps the enemy.

Give your whole support to rationing and thereby conserve our vital goods. Be guided by the rule:

"If you don't need it, DON'T BUY IT."

COMPOSER

James Hernandez, young blind composer and Lafayette's most recent representative in the world of music, smiles in anticipation of the premier introduction of his music to be presented by an All-State orchestra at the Louisiana Education Association's annual convention, November 22, in Lafayette. Hernandez's winning composition, "Quadrille", was the unanimous choice as winner of the 1948 High School Creative Music project, sponsored by the State Department of Education for Louisiana.

Dear James:

May I congratulate you on receiving one of the most significant honors a student of Southwestern can receive, that of being selected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" throughout the United States. This is one of the highest honors that can be received by any student at this institution and it certainly is a tribute to your fine record at Southwestern to be selected.

Again congratulations and best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely yours,

Boarding Pass

Do you have some free time coming up?

Maybe a long weekend, a few days off, or a vacation?

If so, TTA has a suggestion. Award yourself with a trip—get away from the routine—do something different. It will do wonders for you, and you deserve it.

Just imagine cruising through the air—relaxed and rested—headed for a visit with family or friends or for that long-awaited vacation trip. When you fly, you have more time there, less time on the way.

Picture yourself in colorful New Orleans during Mardi Gras, or on a historic journey to San Antonio — the Alamo, San Jose Mission, and a walk along the picturesque San Antonio River.

The enchantment of Mexico beckons as you fly to one of the border cities, or perhaps you've always wanted to travel to New Mexico—Carlsbad Caverns, Santa Fe, or Albuquerque.

Vacation at fabulous Hot Springs, make a pilgrimage to the Ante Bellum homes of Jackson, or visit the Cotton Carnival in Memphis—Splash in the surf at beautiful Galveston Isle, or be in Tyler when the roses bloom.

Marvel at the wonders of Houston's Domed Stadium and the Manned Spacecraft Center. Have the time of your life at Six Flags Over Texas, or fly to any of the TTA cities in the six Southwestern states.

Wherever you live, there is something different, beautiful, and wonderful awaiting your enjoyment. The change of pace you need to make your life fuller, make you sharper, and make your family happier.

TTA serves a six-state area overflowing with variety. Fast, economical, and convenient service is waiting and eager for you. Take advantage of our family plan, our low, low excursion fares, or our first-time rider fare.

For detailed descriptions on vacation spots, watch the TTA ticket counters for those brightly colored brochures called "Funtours." There will soon be twelve for your selection.

TTA TRAVELING TIPS

CONNECTIONS—Normally, you need 30 minutes at major TTA Terminals to make flight connections. Connections to another TTA plane take less time. Your TTA Reservationist will advise you the connecting time and where to change planes.

BAGGAGE LIABILITY/LIMITATIONS—TTA takes pride in the careful handling of your personal property and baggage while it is in our custody. In the event of loss or damage, the liability is limited to the amount equal to the value of such property, not to exceed $250.00 per passenger. If you wish to declare a higher value, an extra premium of $0.10 per $100.00 of declared valuation is required. The TTA agent will be happy to assist you with this detail at the time you check in for your TTA flight.

CHECK-IN TIME—Ticketed passengers should be at the TTA airport ticket counter AT LEAST 20 MINUTES BEFORE GATE TIME. Reservations may be cancelled if the passenger has not checked in 10 minutes before gate time.

RECONFIRM YOUR RESERVATION—Reconfirmation may be necessary when you travel to another city and remain overnight or longer. In order to reconfirm your reservation, contact the airline at least 6 hours before flight departure time, advising the reservationist that you intend to use your continuing space. Please help us make your trip more enjoyable and trouble-free by reconfirming your reservation. Thank You.
